REMARKS

USA proffered the pretrial services report and concurs with its recommendation of continued detention of the Defendant.

USA argued why the Court should detain the Defendant and why there are no conditions of release which will reasonably assure Defendant's appearance as required and/or the safety of the community. USA argues the weight of the evidence along with the Defendant's assaultive behavior.

Defense counsel argued why the Defendant should be released. Defense counsel argues conditions of release with GPS home monitoring.

Rebuttal argument by USA.

Rebuttal argument by Defense counsel.

The Court ordered:

1. USA's Motion for Detention is granted; subject to right to return before the Court should circumstances change.
2. That there is no combination of conditions to assure the Defendant's appearance as required or conditions to ensure that Defendant is not a danger to the community.
3. Defendant shall be detained by the U.S. Marshal until further order of the Court.
